REPORT OF THE SUPERINTENDENT

Dr. Shine reported on the following happenings around the school district:

- This week, we received the news that Rye High School ranked number 84 of the top 1600 schools in the country. This analysis is done annually by Newsweek Magazine and is based on the number of AP and/or IB examinations divided by the number of graduating seniors. This is the second time this year that Rye High School has been in the "Top 100" – having been placed in the Gold Medal School category by US News and World Report. Each of these rankings is a testament to our hard working faculty and students, who are willing to be challenged with college level work. Congratulations to everyone!
- Rye High School Students volunteered their time on Saturday to "Help Lick Cancer." In only three hours, they raised $2,300. which was donated to Memorial Sloan-Kettering Cancer Research. The effort was spearheaded by sophomores Kelly Lyons, Lea Sporken and Harrison Janart.
- The results are in for the 3rd Annual Rye High School Poetry Contest for students in Grades 9 through 11. The grand prize for best overall poem was awarded to Caitlin Hartnett. Congratulations to each of the winning poets and to every student who submitted work.
- Peter Kramer of the Journal News created the "Pedro" awards a few years ago to recognize outstanding high school theater. Our own Parsons Street Players were awarded the DAREDEVIL "Pedro" for daring to put on not one, but two, spring musicals this year. Congratulations to Mike Limone and all of our talented students.
- Last Friday night, a group of Rye Middle School 8th grade girls worked hard to make Midnight Run an incredible success. Mentor Craig Dreves reports that it was a powerful experience for all involved. He commends these girls, who not only originated the idea, but collected hundreds of items to donate, including $1700. for the Midnight Run Organization itself. The students worked from 7:30 pm to 3:30 am to help the homeless. It was an eye-opening experience for all involved.

- Shawn Amdur, the Elementary Music Coordinator reports that the following students received Excellent and Outstanding ratings for the NYSSMA Solo Festival held in Scarsdale last week for the Elementary School Level:
Miyo Arai, Nicole Davis, Firoz George, Madeleine Albanese, Keaton Mueller, Sarah Iles, Guy Junkins, Aidan Pasquale, Mako Matsuzaki, Charlie Gray, Robert Konopka, Mark Willis.
- Last Thursday, Osborn's second "Principal for the Day" – Katherine Langer – assumed her duties. Aside from making the morning announcements and selecting the best bulletin boards for each grade, Katherine introduced Mrs. Lisa Fiore from the New York Blood Center at an assembly for 3rd and 4th grades. The assembly was held in conjunction with the upcoming blood drive to be hosted at the school.
- Midland student artists posed on the red carpet as they showed off their artwork to family and friends at the school last week. Principal Dr. Grille, art teacher Bret Reilly, and many other Midland teachers were there to greet students and their families. Congratulations to all of our talented artists.
- In the next two weeks, there are a number of important dates to note. We will have moving up and commencement ceremonies at each of our schools and many students to celebrate as they are launched to the next phase of their education and their lives. In advance, I'd like to congratulate these students and their parents and wish them well next year.
