PUBLIC COMPLAINTS ABOUT INSTRUCTIONAL MATERIALS

Students have the right of free access to many different types of instructional materials. Teachers and administrators have the right and responsibility to select instructional materials to support the curriculum in accordance with current trends in education. The Board of Education has the oversight responsibility for all instructional materials.

The District's aim is to provide textbooks and instructional materials that present a wide variety of viewpoints concerning international, national and local problems and issues.

All complaints concerning textbooks, library materials and other instructional materials shall be directed to the principal of the building where the material is being challenged. The Superintendent of Schools shall promulgate regulation(s) outlining a complaint procedure.
